A Note from the Director

Dear Music Student:

First Academy of Music provides high quality musical instruction for students of all ages and levels of skill. The school was founded in 1998 as a ministry of First Presbyterian Church (under the name “Community Music School”) and continues to provide vocal and instrumental lessons with the finest teachers. Members of the faculty include professional educators, church musicians, symphony players, and active performers.

We offer private lessons on individual instruments as well as group musical experiences for children and adults. Performance opportunities occur at the end of each semester in group recitals, as well as over the course of the program year as needed.

Financial assistance is available to qualifying students aged 18 years and younger enrolled in private lessons at the school. Monthly payment plans are also available.

At First Academy of Music, we value the importance of music making as an educational and personal endeavor. Our desire is to nurture your musical interest and ability so that you will enjoy the benefits of music making for the rest of your life.
